Principles and Recommendations	Compliance	Comply
Principle 1 Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Board is responsible for overall corporate governance of the Company. The role of the Board and delegation to management have been formalised in the Charter which outlines the main corporate governance practices in place for the Company and to which the Board and each Director are committed. The conduct of the Board is also governed by the Constitution, and where there is inconsistency with that document, the Constitution prevails to the extent of the inconsistency. The Charter will be reviewed and amended from time to time as appropriate taking into consideration practical experience gained in operating as a listed company.	Complies
1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company has completed police checks, insolvency and banned director searches in relation to the existing directors. The Company will conduct appropriate checks for future appointments.	Complies
1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company has entered into written agreements with each director and senior executive.	Complies

1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	This is consistent with the Charter and corporate structure of the Company. The Company Secretary has a direct relationship with the Board in relation to these matters and operates independently of the executive.	Complies
1.5	Establish a diversity policy and disclose the policy or a summary of that policy. The policy should include requirements for the board to establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and for the board to assess annually both the objectives and progress in achieving them, for reporting against in each reporting period.	The diversity policy for the Company has recently been implemented and the Company reported on measurable objectives in this policy.	Complies
1.6	A listed entity should (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	The Board Charter provides for regular performance reviews to be conducted.	Complies
1.7	A listed entity should (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	The Board's broad function is to define the Company's purpose, approve the Company's statement of values and code of conduct, chart strategy and set financial targets for the Company, monitor the implementation and execution of strategy and performance against financial targets, appoint and oversee the performance of executive management, and generally to take an effective leadership role in relation to the Company. The Chairman, with assistance from the Remuneration and Nominations Committee, annually assesses the performance of Directors and senior executives, and the Chairman's performance is assessed by the other Directors.	Complies

Principle 2 Structure the board to add value

2.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	A Remuneration and Nominations Committee has been established with its own Charter and consists of Jane Ryan (committee chair), David Brookes, Sue MacLeman and Tracie Ramsdale. The Remuneration and Nominations Committee complies with recommendation 2.4, which recommends that the Committee have at least three members, the majority of whom must be independent. The Company has established charter rules for the Nominations Committee as a guide for Board deliberations. Together, the Directors have a broad range of experience, expertise, skills, qualifications and contacts relevant to the Company and its business.	Complies Does not presently comply, however, the Board intends to formalise a skills matrix.
2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.

Corporate Governance Statement

2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	The Board considers each of the following directors to be independent: Sue MacLeman (appointed 29 August 2018) Jane Ryan (appointed 29 August 2018) David Brookes (appointed 23 January 2019)	Complies
2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	The Company currently has a four-member Board, of whom four are independent non-executive Directors.	Complies
2.5 The Chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Chairman, Sue MacLeman, is a non-executive Director and is considered to be independent. The Company's CEO, Steven Lydeamore is not the same individual as the Chairman.	Complies
2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	This is consistent with the Board Charter and processes implemented by Anatar.	Complies

Principle 3 Act ethically and responsibly

3.1 A listed entity should: (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.	The Company has adopted a code of conduct, which sets out a framework to enable Directors to achieve the highest possible standards in the discharge of their duties and to give a clear understanding of best practice in corporate governance.	Complies

Principle 4 Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting

4.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.

The Company has established an Audit and Risk Management Committee to assist and report to the Board. The Audit and Risk Management Committee consists of David Brookes (committee chair), Sue MacLeman, and Jane Ryan, all independent Directors and Tracie Ramsdale and is chaired by an independent Director who is not the Chairman.

Complies

4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO, a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.

This is consistent with the approach to be adopted by the Audit and Risk Management Committee and Board.

4.3 A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Anatara’s auditor will be requested to attend the AGM and shareholders will be entitled to ask questions in accordance with the Corporations Act and these Guidelines.
Principle 5 Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1 A listed entity should (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Anatara has a written continuous disclosure policy which is designed to ensure that all material matters are appropriately disclosed in a balanced and timely manner and in accordance with the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules.	Complies
Principle 6 Respect the rights of security holders
6.1 A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	The Board Charter and other applicable policies are available on the Company’s website.	Complies
6.2 A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors	The Company aims to ensure that all Shareholders are well informed of all major developments affecting the Company and that the full participation by Shareholders at the Company’s AGM is facilitated.	Complies
6.3 A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders	The Company intends to facilitate effective participation in the AGM, as well as the ability to submit written questions ahead of the AGM. The Company intends to adopt appropriate technologies to facilitate the effective communication and conduct of general meetings.	The Company has not disclosed a formal policy or process but has however engaged recognised and reputable share registry service provider and investor relations consultant to further these objectives.
6.4 A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	The Company has instructed its share registry to facilitate this option for investors, as well as future shareholders at appropriate times.	Complies

Principle 7 Recognise and manage risk

7.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	The Company has a combined Audit and Risk Management Committee to oversee risk. See above for independent status of the committee members. The functions and operations of the Committee are established under the Charter.	Complies
7.2 The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place	The Charter establishes the role of the committee. The committee will establish the risk management framework.	Complies
7.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Due to the Company's limited number of employees and relative nature and scale of its operations, the costs of an independent audit function would be disproportionate. The Company has an external auditor and the Audit and Risk Management Committee will monitor and evaluate material or systemic issues. The Board believes it and the Audit and Risk Management Committee have adequate oversight of the existing operations.	Complies
7.4 A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	The Board does not believe the Company has any such material risks. The Company must operate in accordance with the regulatory and ethical standards prescribed by the APVMA in Australia and other relevant regulators overseas.	Complies

Corporate Governance Statement

Principle 8 Remunerate fairly and responsibly

8.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.	The Board has established a Remuneration and Nominations Committee to assist the Board to discharge its responsibilities in relation to remuneration and issues relevant to remuneration policies and practices, including those for senior management and nonexecutive Directors. The Remuneration and Nomination committee consists of Jane Ryan (committee chair), David Brookes, Sue MacLeman and Tracie Ramsdale. It consists of a majority of independent directors, is chaired by an independent director who is not the Chairman and has at least three members. The composition and role of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is set out in the Remuneration and Nomination Committee charter.	Complies
8.2 A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	The Company intends to adopt remuneration policies which comply with the Guidelines including separately disclosing the remuneration of nonexecutive directors, and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives. No senior executive is involved directly in deciding their own remuneration.	Complies
8.3 A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	In accordance with the Company's share trading policy, participants in any equity-based incentive scheme are prohibited from entering into any transaction that would have the effect of hedging or otherwise transferring the risk of any fluctuation in the value of any unvested entitlement in the Company's securities to any other person.	Complies
